The Seminar is held on Wednesdays at 5 pm in the Study Centre (Room 5), Jesus College, with support from the Society for the Promotion of Byzantine Studies

Michaelmas Term

12 October – Dr Adam Izdebski (Jagiellonian University)
‘How Science Helps History: Approaching Late Antiquity and Byzantium through vegetation history and palaeoclimatology’

9 November – Dr Douglas Whalin (University of Cambridge)
‘Peri Strategias: the text and context of an anonymous early medieval manual on strategy reconsidered’

Lent Term

25 January – Professor (emerita) Judith Herrin (King’s College London)
TBA

2 March – Mr Matthew Kinloch (University College, Oxford)
‘The Failed Story of Reconquest: Narratives, Events, and Characters in Thirteenth-Century Byzantine Historiography’

Easter Term

3 May – Dr Anna Lampadaridi (CNRS, Institut de recherche et d’histoire des textes, Paris)
‘Christianising Late Antique Gaza: The Life of Porphyry of Gaza by Mark the Deacon revisited’

11 May – Dr Marek Jankowiak (Wolfson College, Oxford)
‘Dirhams for Slaves: Slave trade between the Islamic world and northern Europe in the 9th–10th centuries’

Convenors: Alexandra Vukovich (Newnham, av347) and Dan Neary (Corpus Christi, dpn28)